

wisconsin no call list law should be left alone. It is overwhelming supported by the people of this state and from when I last checked this is still a democracy.